

tips & tricks

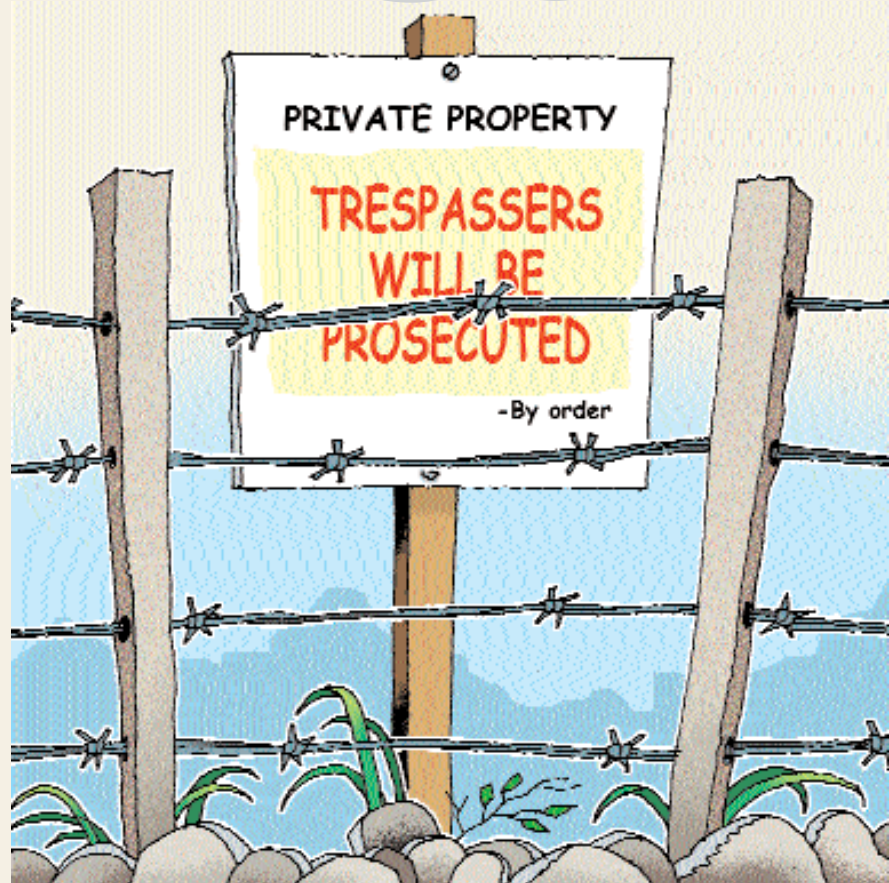

Illustration: Mahesh Benkar

UNBREACHABLE SECURITY

Denial of Service attacks, mail bombing, ping flooding...if these terms scare you, then it's time to take a few protective measures

Contents

WINDOWS OS
Windows 9x/Me
Creating security policies.....	2
Forcing users to enter password.....	2
Installing Critical Updates	2
Disabling sharing.....	2
Unbinding NetBIOS to TCP/IP	3
Enabling file extensions.....	3
Scraping past security.....	3
Changing default locations.....	3
Windows NT/2000
Restricting guest access.....	4
Encrypting and securing files.....	4
Watching your shares-I	4
Watching your shares-II.....	4
BROWSER PROTECTION
Internet Explorer 5 and 5.5
Deleting cookies.....	5
Working around cookies	5
Disabling Windows Scripting Host.....	5
Disabling AutoComplete	5
Deleting History items.....	5
Filtering content.....	5
Disabling Java.....	6
Changing settings of restricted zone.....	6
Netscape Navigator
Changing your security level.....	6
Clearing the Location Bar	6
Managing cookies	6
Setting privacy options	6
Manage your Usernames and Passwords.....	6
Encrypt passwords.....	7
SAFETY IN E-MAIL AND CHAT
Disabling archiving of postings.....	7
Avoiding newsgroup spams	7
Encrypting messages.....	7
Blocking messages using filters.....	7
Password protection	7
Changing the Internet Zone.....	7
Hiding IP address in ICQ.....	8
Spoofing your IP in mIRC	8
Using a proxy server.....	8
Keeping a spam address	8
PC SECURITY
Locking Internet access in ZoneAlarm	8
E-mail protection in Norton.....	8
Importance of Live Updates	8
Scanning all downloads	8

Find it on digit

interactive

Tips & Tricks

All about Easter Eggs, check out

Mindware