

tips & tricks

LINUX LOOMS LARGE

You can reach for the stars with Linux and currently available applications. Here's how to get the best out of it

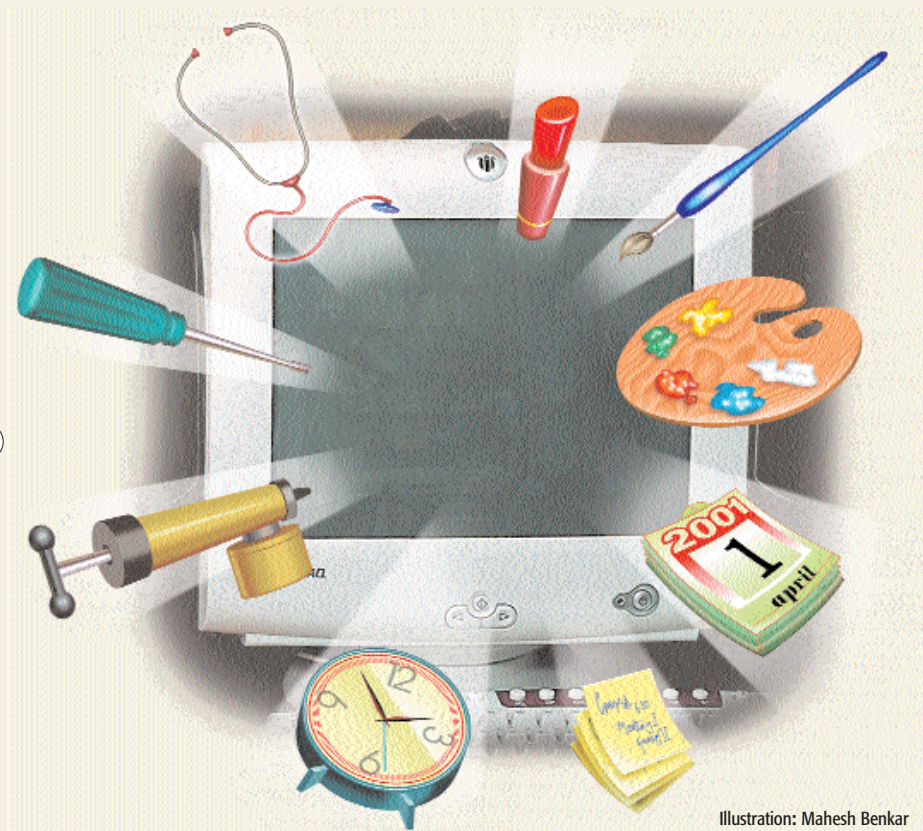

Illustration: Mahesh Benkar

Contents

LINUX ON YOUR DESKTOP

Changing the default desktop.....	26
Changing your window manager from the terminal	26
Changing your window manager in Gnome or KDE	26
Box: KDE Keyboard Shortcuts	26
Handling your documents	27
Working with different browsers	27
Selecting themes in Gnome	27

Box: Choosing the Window Manager

Using the KDE taskbar	28
Reading the manual pages in KDE	28
Disabling KDE defaults for non-KDE applications.....	28
Using the Windows shortcuts of your keyboard.....	28

COMMAND LINE CONFIGURATION

Installing True Type fonts.....	29
Adding font paths from X.....	29
Shutting down from a desktop environment.....	29
Killing an X session	29
Optimising terminal emulators.....	29
Copy-paste in terminal window.....	29
Sound and mouse configuration.....	29
Some command line tools	30

NET ACCESS WITH LINUX

Changing font selections in Netscape.....	30
Customising Netscape's toolbar	30
Opening Netscape Mail without the browser.....	30
Konqueror with a terminal	30
Configuring accounts in KMail.....	30
Combating spam with KMail Bounce feature.....	31
Automatically checking e-mail.....	31
Making Konqueror assume Netscape's role.....	31
Running Java applets in Konqueror	31
Download managers for X.....	31
Faster Web browsing	31

MULTIMEDIA TIME

Ripping CDs to your hard disk.....	32
Playing Ogg Vorbis files	32
Converting MP3 files to Wav	32
Creating a playlist of all MP3s	32
Playing DivX with xmms-l	32
Playing DivX in Linux-II	32

Tips & Tricks

Compilation of tips
Troubleshooting

Working with Linux, check out,
Mindware