Wild Wild Web

After many hours in front of a computer monitor, we get bored with the standard sites. Sometimes we end up at sites like these while searching the vast recesses of the Web.

www.geocities.com/warrior-sofdestruction: These guys look pretty tough and their Web page design is second to none. A Quake II clan that knows how to make lots of money. And they want to share it with you. Animated gifs, MIDI music, and bad design, this site has it all.
