

New Kids on the Block

For the last sifting step of the Talent Hunt, the aspirants were invited to visit the Jasubhai Digital Media head office in Nerul, Navi Mumbai. They spent a few days soaking in the eclectic JDM culture, sampling our canteen food (and living to tell the tale!), and not to forget, giving tests and interviews. After 72 hours of induction, we decided to export the final 16 to Synapse, our not-for-profit organisation for further training.

The group of the finalists arrive and grin a while in our lobby...

...and then get right to work:
The aspirants fill in forms about their personal details.

Prashant Narekuli, brand manager of CRN briefs the newcomers on the company

Round 1: Everyone stretches their fingers to give the written test

Round 2: A battle of wits is fought in the group discussions

Round 3: One on one interviews with the various team leaders