The designer who made the difference

Digit's new look will not be complete without a mention of Hashim P M, whose fine sense of design has driven this magazine's new personality. The 35-year-old unassuming Master of Design from IIT Bombay's Industrial Design Centre spent innumerable days (and nights!) defining Digit's design vision, and then perfecting it. Hashim runs his independent design studio, Design Difference, out of Cochin. You can write to him at designdifference@vsnl.com, or visit his Web site www.design-difference.com.
