

'Add Effect', and do one or more of the following:

- ☑ If you want to make the text or object enter the slide show presentation with an effect, point to 'Entrance' and then click an effect.
- ☑ If you want to add an effect to text or an object that is on the slide, point to 'Emphasis' and then click an effect.
- ☑ If you want to add an effect to text or an object that makes it leave the slide, point to 'Exit' and then click an effect.

Nudging Objects

 You can use the arrow keys to move objects very small distances. Select the object, then use your arrow keys. Each press of the key will move the object one 'Grid Unit', which is 1/12th of an inch. If you hold down [Alt] while nudging, or if you have the grid turned off, you can move the objects one pixel at a time.

Darken The Display

 PowerPoint has a feature that lets you darken your display until you are ready to begin your presentation. With PowerPoint in Show mode, press [B] on your keyboard. PowerPoint now displays a black screen. When you are ready to begin your presentation, press the [B] key again, and your display will return. Remember to only press [B] to return your display - pressing any other key may advance your slides.

Proportionate Resizing

 Hold down the [Shift] key while resizing images. Doing so will allow you to resize an image without changing its proportional dimensions.

Subliminal Messages

These can be very useful in the right circumstances. Create a text object. With the text object selected, click on the 'Animation Effects' button on the toolbar—the one that looks like a yellow star—and then click on the 'flash once' button. You will see the message quickly flash and disappear.

MS OUTLOOK

Change The Calendar View

 Did you know you can use a keyboard shortcut to modify the number of days visible in your Outlook calendar? Just press [Alt] and any number between 1 and 10. The number determines how many days will be displayed. So, for instance, to see an eight-day span, just press [Alt] + [8]. (For this to work, you must use the number keys on the keyboard, not the numeric keypad.)

Schedules At A Glance

 The Calendar group schedule in Outlook makes it easy to see the combined schedules of a number of people or resources at a glance. You can create and save multiple group schedules, each showing a group of people or resources. To create a group, first click 'Calendar' on the 'Folder List' (or in the Outlook Shortcuts bar). Click Schedules in the 'Advanced' toolbar. In the 'Group Schedules' dialog box, click 'New'. Type a name for the new group schedule, and then click OK. In the dialog box that appears, click the 'Add Others' button, and then click either 'Add from Address Book' or 'Add Public Folder'. Select the names or the public folder, and then click 'Save and Close'.

To view the group calendar, select the group schedule you want to view, and then click 'Open'.

Unknown Sources

 Want to keep e-mail messages from people that you don't know out of your Inbox? You can set rules to move messages from unknown sources to a separate folder where you can sort through them at your leisure.

First, create a new folder in your Inbox to hold any mail sent by an unknown source: in the Folder list, right-click Inbox and click 'New Folder'. Now, type a name for the folder, such as 'Unknown Senders', and click 'OK'.

Next, create a new rule with the 'Rules Wizard': on the Tools menu, click 'Rules Wizard'. Click 'New', and then Browsing In Outlook?

With Outlook 2002, you can view a recently-visited Web site without minimising or closing Outlook. When you select a Web site address from the 'Address Bar', the Web page appears within Outlook. To open a Web page from within Outlook, on the Address Bar (located above and to the right of the area where your e-mail messages appear), click the vertical line next to Address, and then slide it to the left until you see the Address box and the Go, Stop, and Refresh buttons. Then do one of the following: either type the address for the Web page you want to display in the Address Box, and then click 'Go'. Or, select an address from the list.

click 'Start from a blank rule'. Click 'Check messages when they arrive', and click Next. In the 'Which condition(s) do you want to check?' box, select the 'On This Machine Only' check box. Click 'Next'. In the 'What do you want to do with the Message' box, click 'Move it to the Specified Folder'. In the 'Rule Description' box, click 'specified', click the folder you created (such as 'Unknown Senders'), and then click 'OK'. Click 'Next'. In the 'Add any Exceptions' box, check the 'Except if sender is in specified Address Book' checkbox. In the 'Rule description' box, click 'Specified'. In the 'Add Address List' dialog box, choose 'Outlook Address Book', click 'Add', and then click 'Next'. Type the name of your rule, click 'Finish', and then 'OK'. ✉
