Best Buy and the Best Performer. There is also a special category of the editor's choice, which is purely our recommendation.

For the Best Buy, it's a tie! Both of the Dell Venue Android tablets take away the Best Buy Awards since both offer a great set of specs and performance at an affordable price tag within their price brackets. Tablets like the Simmtronics Xpad Turbo and MTV Slash 4X are available under ₹10,000 however if you want a much better performance and a quality design one should definitely go for the Dell Venue 7 which is available for about ₹11,000. For an extra ₹7,000 we have the Dell Venue 8 which offers a larger real estate along with a faster processor.

The Best Performer Award goes to the iberry Auxus CoreX8 as the Exynos octa-core SoC powered tablet churned out some great numbers in the
