

When your Wi-Fi goes down for a minute

Gamers
In game lobby vs. Real Life

Every time there's a software update...

...and so the cycle continues

Auto-correct struggles

Auto-correct: Helping and ruining lives since 1993

*I hope the person who made autocorrect burns in Hell!

Him trying to act smart...
Him: Autocorrect text never fails
Her: Huh?
Him: Fails... Nevermind

The struggle of choosing a new password:

Must contain:

- Must contain at least one uppercase letter
- one lowercase letter
- one number
- one special character
- a secret family recipe

When someone says they can live without technology

That moment when your code finally works

I remember when 1.44MB was enough...

Floppy Disk
