

With a twist of the wrist,
Raw exhilaration coursing
through my being,
Keeping pace with the cataclysmic
force of a Pulsar, hooning through the skies.

The engine roars, the heavens part.
A howling rush around a tranquil feeling.

The manic symphony plays out -
as if written in the stars.

THE PURSUIT OF THRILL.

The skyscape turns into my playground.
The cosmos cheers me on.
It takes my breath away
as I become one with stardust.
I've never felt as alive.

IN THAT MOMENT,
I AM WHERE I BELONG.
