

Hi Jayesh Shinde,

Would like to pen down few thoughts of mine in regard to your column on the April 2024 Digit edition that I do really love reading the column still maintaining the same flavor and contents which draws me back to the old days where I was reading the printed digit magazine some time back in 2008-09 where it was not some mere printed media only but an inspiration and hope for middle class like me to merged into the dreamland of techno world which was near to impossible for us to afford in reality forgetting the budget to purchase Digit magazine on monthly basis. Fast forwarding to nearly 15 years later, I am able to setup a PC with a decent config on the platform of an i7 14th gen then I have decided to go back to the magazine I loved most i.e Digit. Sorry to see that Skoar was discontinued in printed format which was considered the premium magazine one a time...could still reminisce the sweet smell of the print...forget about the contents. Such was the value of the magazine.

In short I am writing to let the team know that I do really appreciate the team in making Digit still the no1 techno magazine in India and am pleased to informed the team that I have now subscribed the magazine(Sorry it took my 15 years for that)

Work hard and game hard

Best wishes

Dear Minlun,

Thank you so much for taking the time to share your heartfelt thoughts with us. It's incredibly touching to hear how Digit has been a part of your tech journey over the years.

We are thrilled to welcome you back into the fold as a subscriber after all these years. That's a pretty good PC setup; geared towards gaming, no doubt? SKOAR! still lives inside the pages of Digit, and it will continue to do so as long as there's a gamer drawing breath amongst Team Digit's ranks!

Rest assured, we'll continue to work hard – and game hard – to keep you engaged and inspired.

Thank you once again for your kind words and for being a part of the Digit family. If there's anything else we can do to enhance your reading experience, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Best wishes,

-Jayesh

FAQs

All your questions about
Digit answered here

Q What subscription options are available right now? And where can I buy the magazine from?

A To see the latest print subscriptions, head to:
<https://store.digit.in/subscribe>

To see the latest digital only subscriptions, head to:
<https://geek.digit.in/shop/>

Q I have bought a print copy magazine. Can I access the digital version too?

A Yes! ALL print copy sales, including individual copy sales, subscriptions, and even mag-only subscriptions, all come with free digital access to that month's copy or a subscription that matches your print subscription. Subscribers need only write to help@digit.in and ask them to activate their digital subscription, and online buyers of the print mag can do the same. For newsstand buyers, just write in to help@digit.in with a picture of the magazine cover lying on your table and we're happy to provide access to the email address you wrote in from.

Q How do I read the Digital Magazine?

A Login or Create an account at <https://geek.digit.in/my-account/> Then, once you have access, either bought from the geek site, or if you have used the steps above to get access via your print subscription/ purchase, you can find all the magazines at this URL: <https://geek.digit.in/tag/magazine/>

Q How can I access the eDVD?

A Ever since we discontinued the physical DVD, we have provided access to an online version of software, games and more in the form of an "eDVD". You can access this by going to:
<https://geek.digit.in/tag/edvd/>

Q I want to read an older issue. Is there any way I can access the archive?

A Yes, we're giving access to our entire 22-year archive to all subscribers or special issue buyers. Note: If you're a subscriber, just ask help@digit.in for the link, and they will share it.

If you are a monthly buyer, just write in to archive@digit.in and follow the instructions given there. Happy Reading!
