

more dynamic and immersive sound experience. You can connect to it via Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, and AirPlay 2, giving you plenty of options for streaming music from your favourite services like Spotify, Apple Music, and Amazon Music.

The Sonos app is your control centre for all things Era 300. It's user-friendly and lets you adjust settings, create speaker groups, and explore new music with ease. The app also supports voice control via Amazon Alexa, so you can manage your music and smart home devices hands-free.

One really cool feature is the ability to pair two Era 300 speakers for stereo sound or use them as rear surrounds in a Sonos home theatre setup. This flexibility makes the Era 300 a great addition to any home audio system, whether you're using it solo or as part of a larger setup.

However, there are a couple of downsides. The Era 300 doesn't support high-resolution audio formats natively, which might be a letdown for audio-philosophers. Also, if you want to connect older devices via an analogue input, you'll need to buy a separate adapter. This adds extra cost and could be seen as an inconvenience.

VERDICT

The Sonos Era 300 is a fantastic speaker that blends cutting-edge design, stellar sound quality, and a host of useful features. Its ability to deliver immersive, room-filling sound makes it a great choice for both serious audiophiles and casual listeners. The modern, sleek design ensures it looks good in any room, and its robust build quality means it's built to last. With extensive connectivity options and seamless integration with the Sonos app, the Era 300 is quite a user-friendly audio solution. Whether you're looking to upgrade your home theatre system or simply want a high-quality speaker for your living room, the Sonos Era 300 is a strong contender. While this speaker is not for everyone, primarily due to the exorbitant price and its wired nature, it is a solid option for audiophiles who want an immersive sonic experience at home.

—Dhriti Datta

SPECIFICATIONS

Amplifiers: Six class-D digital amplifiers | Tweeters: Four tweeters (1x forward-firing, 2x side-firing mid tweeters, 1x upward firing) | Woofers: Two woofers | Microphones: Far-field microphones | Weight: 4.47 kg | Colours: Black, White | Wi-Fi: Wi-Fi 6 | Bluetooth: v5.0 | Voltage: 100-240V 50/60 Hz internal power supply

CONTACT

Company: Sonos | Phone: NA | Email: NA | Website: <https://www.sonos.com/en-in/home>