

Microsoft's AI-powered Designer app now available on Android and iOS

Microsoft has just launched its AI-powered Designer app for Android and iOS, making it easier than ever to create stunning visuals right from your smartphone or tablet. Whether you're designing social media posts, posters, or flyers, this app brings the power of AI to your fingertips, helping you craft good quality designs effortlessly. "Today we're announcing that the Microsoft Designer app is now generally available with a personal Microsoft account, with new features that help you create and edit like never before. You can express yourself in brand new ways and bring your most creative ideas to life in seconds—all with the help of AI," Microsoft announced in a blogpost. <https://bit.ly/MicroiOS-1>

WhatsApp spotted testing AI Studio feature

WhatsApp remains our go-to platform for seamless communication and connection worldwide, offering reliable messaging and innovative features. Meta-owned WhatsApp, known for its continuous rollout of new functionalities, is reportedly testing a new AI Studio feature in Android beta. "Although Meta is still working on bringing Meta AI to more countries, it appears that WhatsApp is now focusing on further refining the experience with chatbots, with the aim to enhance the functionality and capabilities of AI interactions. Thanks to the latest WhatsApp beta for Android 2.24.15.10 update, which is available on the Google Play Store, we discovered that WhatsApp is rolling out an AI Studio feature with additional chatbots!" the report said. <https://bit.ly/WhAI-1>

Elon Musk brings forward an AI fashion show!

The video shared by Musk rapidly went viral, amassing over 13 million views within just two hours

In today's digital age, AI is making waves in ways we never imagined. From transforming industries to reshaping entertainment, artificial intelligence is continually pushing boundaries. One of the latest examples is an eye-catching AI-generated video shared by Elon Musk on X (formerly Twitter), which envisions a fashion show featuring some of the world's most prominent figures.

In the video, AI has dressed a roster of influential personalities in high-fashion outfits. Among those featured are Joe Biden, the President of the United States; Kim Jong Un, Supreme Leader of North Korea; Donald Trump, former US President; Barack Obama, former US President; Tim Cook, Apple CEO; Narendra Modi, Prime Minister of India; and Mark Zuckerberg, CEO of Meta (formerly Facebook). Even Musk himself makes an appearance in the AI fashion show.
