

THE EFFECTS OF TECHNOLOGY EXPOSURE ON KIDS OF TODAY

Steve Jobs reportedly restricted his kids from accessing the iPad. Were his fears of the ill effects of tech unfounded? Is tech good for kids or does it cause more harm? Read on...

Have you met five-year-old Mumbai-based pre-schooler Moksha Jain? She can't get through a single meal without her tablet playing cartoons in front of her. Or ten-year-old Bangalore-based Ethan D'sa, who has a cellphone, tablet AND laptop and can always be seen on either one or all of those attention-seeking gadgets at any given time of the day? Kids today are battling an addiction of sorts.
