

but also be extremely engaged and educated during their time there.

Night Zookeeper

The Night Zookeeper game is actually an app designed as a website suitable for tablets. The game is a fascinating experience for kids as it opens up to them an imaginative studio environment. Kids not only play the game but also use the studio to create their own animal characters in their own stories.

The game is practically free with the option of a paid expansion pack.

National Geographic Kids and Little Kids

The brand of National Geographics is well known throughout the world. Now, thanks to the archiving of content online and child oriented curation, parents can let their children experience the wonder of the world through the NatGeo websites. The two separate websites are oriented towards young and very young kids and bring to them a vast array of photographs, games, information and videos. The website serves as an indispensable tool in allowing your kids to explore the world safely from home.

Pottermore

Any child who hasn't experienced J.K. Rowling's magnificent fantasy works, in film or books, hasn't had a chance at true wonder. The vast world of Harry Potter is accessible from the Pottermore website which Rowling closely manages. The website is a treasure trove for Potter fans and is specially designed for kids. The portal has a variety of Harry Potter games, reading materials and new stories on a regular basis. It's a great way to connect with
