

Sponsored Posts

Give your posts a massive head start on engagement. Sponsored Posts are just like regular Tumblr posts—just way more visible. They're also targetable by gender, location, and interest. And can be syndicated to Yahoo for added reach.

Sponsored Video Posts

Native video for web and mobile in the same Sponsored Post format you know and love. Targetable like regular Sponsored Posts with additional analytics on views, looping, and engagement. Videos play automatically and loop continuously; and the player pops out so people can keep watching while they scroll.

Sponsored Day

Own a day with a cross-platform promotion. Pin your logo and tagline to the top of the dashboard for 24 hours. It links to an exclusive tab in the Explore page - one of the most trafficked and engaging pages on Tumblr - filled with content you've selected. You can use your own posts, reblog posts you like, or do a mix of both. Whatever story your brand wants to tell, you've got a slice of the dashboard to tell it in all day long.

Since Tumblr ads come with a full set of analytics and dash-
