

you'll be presented with a template screen to pick an appropriate template for our application. Under iOS, click on Application and then in the panel on the right, click on 'Single View Application' and then click on Next.

Now you'll be presented with the options screen, enter the Product name as anything you want, we are going with 'DigitReader'. Fill in the other details like the Organisation Name (your name), an organization identifier (com.digit. for us) which helps the App store interconnect the apps under

