

BEYOND THE VIDEO

Building a YouTube channel isn't as easy as it's chalked up to be. There's a lot more that needs to be done.

A YouTube channel isn't just about throwing a bunch of clips together and hoping for the money shower to start. You need to analyse how your videos are being received by the community and you need to work on that feedback to grow your channel. There are a few free tools and websites to help you with this feedback and build better insights with your data. We're focusing on some time-tested methods in this chapter.
