

Leverage social media to build your community and get a better connect. This will help you increase engagement with your viewers not only on your social media platforms but also on your YouTube channel. These numbers are how other YouTubers and advertisers decide to collaborate with you. The higher your social media presence, the more advertising deals you can strike. YouTube's own monetisation system pays little so moving to discrete advertisers is absolutely necessary as you grow your channel. d