

You can expect Super NES Mini console to look like as shown here with the controller

Conclusion

The gaming console industry is currently dominated by Microsoft, Sony and Nintendo. However, companies like Sega, Atari and Hyperkin have developed their own gaming consoles at budget price. For instance, you can buy Sega Genesis console for $52.99 and Atari Flashback 7 for $47.99. Xiaomi also made an attempt to launch consoles in 2015. Going forward, we can expect new versions based on the latest technological trends and innovations from third-party companies. d
