

iPhone: A phone that just works

The incredible journey of a device that revolutionised an entire industry

Ah, the iPhone. Historically, almost always the world's most popular phone. Even now in 2017, the iPhone 7 commands nearly a huge 6% market share by itself. Think about it! Out of every 100 smartphones in the world, from dozens and dozens of manufacturers, 6 of them are iPhone 7 s. Added to the fact that the number of active iOS devices crossed a billion in January, last year, it really puts into perspective just how many people own an iPhone. And it isn't hard to
