

The paperwork involved in trust and association of person is quite similar and we will be covering it together. Apart from the common documents already mentioned, following needs to be submitted:

- The trust deed in case of trust or bye-laws in case of association
- List of members
- Copy of proof of identity of the entity
- List of authorised signatories
- List of beneficial owners
- KYC documents of authorised signatories and beneficial owners

Bank Loan

Here is the list of basic documentation required for getting a Business Loan:

- A copy of the PAN card of the person or company
- An identity proof
- An address proof
- Bank statements from the last 6 months
- Last 3 years audited balance sheet P&L and cash flow statement
- Projected balance sheet, P&L and cash flow statements for the current year
- List of Debt obligations
- Other documents as required which can include declaration of ownership, MoA, Resolutions, Power of Attorney or any other document required by the bank.

Other than these there can be specific requirements based on the type of loan availed. For example:

- Bank Guarantee: A bank guarantee is a promise from a bank that if a person defaults on a loan, the bank will cover the loss. To obtain the same, one might need to submit the details of orders in hand with status alongwith order copies or copies of agreement.
- Letter of Credit (“LC”): LC is a written commitment by a bank issued after a request by an importer that payment will be made to the exporter provided that the terms and conditions stated in the LC been met. To obtain the same, previous 3 inland LC transaction details might be required for ascertaining the track record.
- Term Loan: Its a monetary loan taken for a pre determined period at a pre determined rate of interest and might require following paperwork:
 - Project report containing cost of project, means of finance, expenditure incurred and projections alongwith justifiable details
