

The magic of drop shipping

Drop shipping allows you to start your e-commerce store from the comfort of your couch.

Think about the biggest obstacle in starting your own e-commerce store. Is it marketing? Finance? Sales? Recruitment? You have probably guessed it by now – the foundation of an ecommerce store is its biggest problem – inventory. You need to invest in the product, stock it, package and ship it on receipt of an order – a lot of investment and time. In general, a drain on money, time and resources in general that can be used elsewhere. Forget being a drain, what if you don't have that kind of capital to begin with? You can't stock the products, you can't sell them and your e-commerce dream is dead in the water. Hold on. Don't panic. Read on and be amazed.
