

Laravel Fundamentals Part 1

Let's learn about Routing, Middleware, CSRF, Controllers, Requests, Responses

Now that Laravel is installed and you are ready to start coding and creating some awesome web applications or websites, let us start understanding the basics.

Routing

Routing is one of the important functions of any MVC based code. The routing function guides the request from the browser to the right controller