

Front-end development with Laravel

We have a thorough look at the Laravel approach to front-end application development. We take a look at localisation, support for control structures, blade templates and JavaScript scaffolding & CSS to get a better look at the bigger picture.