

tunity to appeal recovery procedures, is given proper notice at apt times, is heard and their grievances considered, is given a fair value if the seized property is auctioned, is given the balance amount from the auction in case the sale yielded more than the loaned amount and is given the dignity and respect they deserve as citizens of India when confronted.

Be aware of your rights and duties before signing on the dotted line. When used intelligently, EMI schemes can prove to be a beneficial venture, especially with the transparency in today's banking. d