

all the Information is gathered, click on the “Bubble View” to see all of the relationships between our target data and various linked sites and subdomains.

This was the entire process for data mining and spoofing emails through Maltego. We also discussed BeEF – The Browser Exploitation Framework, that is used to generate fake web pages in the browser and using which we can run commands from the BeEF server to exploit Information from the web browser. 