

Why you must get it?

Sylpheed has all the features that one expects in email client. The easy user-interface, amazing message templates with cool color labels, the bogofilter spam filtration, X-face feature, TLS/SSL security, and PGP encryption, makes it more reliable, safe, and easy to use for businesses.

Zimbra

Brief Description:

Zimbra is an elegantly styled open-source email client software through which you get access to all of your email accounts in one screen. It is flexible between devices so that you can synchronise your emails, calendar data, contacts and locally stored data in the device. If you are running an organization and finding it difficult to communicate between your teams then Zimbra is the right solution as this application offers simple, cheap and time efficient email solutions. An additional feature is you can send the invitations for meetings to your team. It also offers file sharing between users.

Why you must get it:

With Zimbra you can efficiently manage your all your email IDs with shared calendars, shared address books, and anti-spam technology. You can collabo-