

Nagios will be able to maintain the availability of the services and security. It fixes problems during the panic stations automatically. Another reason to use Nagios is that it will help in planning the infrastructure upgrades before the creation of outdated systems of the failures. It will also detect errors of the networks and server crashes. d