

and stamps of personalities can be promoted through the posts. Many users create profiles for fun, for picture or video blogging. Social media influencers grow in network and popularity through their profiles. Others simply like to follow famous people through Instagram. Building of the profile involves posting videos and pictures and attaching influential hashtags and promotional tools. As the number of posts increase, followers increase in number if promotion of the profile is correctly done. Instagram is also a source of revenue for millions of users who want to become influencers on the social media and earn money. Earning money becomes a reality when the number of profile visits and likes increase.

Instagram is a huge platform, and there are all kinds of strategies required for making posts. The profile on this social media platform can be used as a platform to promote the user as a person with interesting hobbies, interests and activities. It is up to the user to optimise the Insta profile as the way he or she wants.

Picking an aesthetic and formulating rules for your own content

An Instagram profile is incomplete without the aesthetic outlook and the attached rules of formulating the posts. One of the best ways to grow the Insta page is to turn it into an aesthetic display. The user promotes himself as a brand or promotes an idea, a concept as an individualised and personalised brand. The reason why people opt to design and personalise the optics is because social media users like to follow pages which are creative and which appeal to their likes, interests and likings. Just like a website, your own page needs your own touch, along with your own rules.

The first step is to decide on the theme of your profile. For inspiration, one can look at other pages following the same objective. For instance, a fitness page has its own unique introduction and attached links for a vast scope of access. Fitness enthusiasts look for motivating posts to follow their own objectives. You can make a bright and positive theme to encourage fitness related trends in a positive light. The second step is to edit photos and videos in an attractive manner for the Insta feed. It depends on you—whether you want a professional or an informal theme. Another step is to ensure that your page does not look too cluttered, as that discourages and alienates your visitors. Maintaining the consistent theme, regularly updating the posts are also important steps. It is also important to make rules for your posts. Privacy options, access options and contact options are entirely up to
