With over 2 billion monthly active users, Facebook is one of the best, if not the best, platform for commercial activities.

Riding the wave of Facebook business ecosystem

Undeniably, Facebook is a dynamic platform for any commercial activity as it is empowered by the presence of more than 2 billion active monthly users. As the number of active users continues to witness an upward swing, grasping the FB demographic is imperative to reaching your audience.

In the US, Facebook is commonly-used by the millennials. Interestingly, more than 80% of parents have revealed that they are included in the friend-list of their teenagers. Seniors, however, appear to lag behind in terms of the usage of FB but lots of them are showing great enthusiasm towards joining the social media platform. The gender split is moderately even in few countries. Surprisingly it is the women who take the lead in
