

- Offer a well-designed profile: Offering a well-designed profile is certainly demanding but it does pay off in the long run. Your FB business page must be decked with the bio, profile, cover photo and updated information. Most importantly, the 'About Us' section must offer all the required details including contact number, address, business hours, location, etc.
- Sprinkle keywords over your business page with strategically: Keywords must be placed strategically all over your business page including the URL, 'About Us' section and page title. Avoid overusing keywords.
- Optimise FB updates: The first 18 characters of every FB post serve as the Meta description and the Meta title in SERPs. Thus, whenever, you post on FB, upload an image or share the content and grab the advantage of a fact that you may add a description.
- Deploy new useful FB tools: If you intend to outperform your competitors, you need to rely on its recently launched tools like 'Call to Action', 'Messenger for business', 'Payments via FB', etc.

Set down rules for a Facebook Group

Setting down rules for a Facebook Group has never been this easy before for the group admins and it enables healthy discussions. Rules are crucial to set the tone for the discussion in the group and to avoid member conflicts. Once rules are defined, they are displayed in the section named 'About Us' of your group. Whenever any member breaks the rule, admin can notify members of that specific group. Creating and modifying group rules is a privilege that is available only to admins.

Utilising keywords in Facebook Page description

Undeniably, the social media platform has a lot to offer besides networking. It has gradually transformed into a search service and hence the value of right keywords has increased to a great extent.

- Select the apt keywords: Thoughtful selection of keywords choices along with their strategic placement will certainly improve chances of progressing up on a search page of social media.
- Lay Relevant Terms: There is always one word or set of words that can portray the best image of a company in terms of its offerings. Think of it and unleash its power.
- Screening competitors: It is truly an effective way to get hold of relevant keywords used by the companies to attract their target audiences.