

YouTube

This platform offers a wide base of audience catering to almost every niche.

Introduction

In 2005, when Jawed Karim, Steve Chen and Chad Hurley introduced YouTube, they had no idea how it was going to completely revolutionise the whole information age. It has changed the way we looked at the world, whether it was about education, entertainment, or any other things. The best thing? The doors are open for talented people all over the world.

Technology has helped bring a lot of breakthroughs in different sectors. It has particularly helped bring a grip to the field of advertising and marketing, making it easier for marketers and businesses to reach their target audience. We aren't oblivious to how social media has become an important part of our daily life. It is much easier now to build a network, reach to the audience, and to spread ideas to the crowd. The world has indeed become smaller with the advent of YouTube. Just by watching the
