

turn out to be an exquisite retargeting tool for driving more visitors to your website. Additionally, users are opportune to many tools available online that can offer assistance in terms of advertising and carrying out promotional activities. It is compatible across all applications and can be easily integrated with most apps available online.

Creating a fantastic YouTube channel homepage

So, now that you have decided to start your own YouTube channel, have you collected enough information required for it? Whether you want to spread a message or promote your brand, YouTube channel definitely gives you a voice to rise. We usually talk about increasing the audience number and branding your business on YouTube. But is it easy to do the way it seems?

Prior to making money, creating the wide audience base, there is one thing a novice has to emphasize on— the YouTube channel itself.

Create a YouTube channel

When you compare a written format of your video, which one of them do you think will impact more? Obviously, the video will influence the viewers more. The smart person knows that it costs more to make a video, and they make it. If you really want to build a channel, then gather all the ideas to make it work out.

Step 1 - Starting with the basics

The very first step is adapting the basic steps. To begin, you have to create a Google account.

- Visit the Google website and click on 'Create Account'.
- By filling the required details, go to the next step.
- A verification code is sent to your mail or phone number for authentication purposes.
- After signing in, you will complete the first step.

Making the YouTube channel

- On the upper right side, you will find the "Sign in" option.
 - After signing in, click on the user icon and select 'My Channel' by dropping down the menu.
 - The next thing comes on your screen 'Use YouTube as.....'
- Congratulations! You are on the YouTube channel.