

url_launcher

This is a Flutter plugin for launching a URL on iOS and Android. It supports web, phone, SMS and email schemes.

path_provider

This Flutter package is a plugin for obtaining commonly-used locations on the Android and iOS file systems like temp and app data directories.

location

Yet another Flutter plugin for handling real-time locations on Android and iOS. It also provides settings for optimizing performance or battery.

flutter_webview_plugin

This is a plugin which enables Flutter to communicate with a native Webview.

device_info

This Flutter plugin provides detailed information about the device and the Android or iOS version that the app is presently running on.

firebase_storage

This Flutter plugin is for Firebase Cloud Storage. It is available for both Android and iOS.

google_maps_flutter

This is a Flutter plugin for the integration of Google Maps on Android and iOS applications.

image_picker

This Flutter plugin helps select images from the Android and iOS image library. It also supports taking new images from the camera.

Tools and Techniques

This includes Android Studio/IntelliJ and Visual Studio Code, both of which can be installed following the Flutter instructions. DevTools can be installed from Android Studio/IntelliJ, Visual Studio Code, and command line.