

could stay in the safe zone, if they so desire. The interface also lets you navigate and explore the areas, hide in deep trenches, camouflaged under the grasses to outlast the other players. Enabled with voice chat, players can team up with their friends and create groups of 4 to make team coordination and game playing easier and smoother.

Garena Free Fire puts the classic mechanism of natural selection – survival of the fittest – to the test.

PIXEL'S UNKNOWN BATTLE GROUND

PIXEL'S UNKNOWN BATTLE GROUND is developed and released by Azur Interactive Games Limited. The game centres around the popular Battle Royale theme where 100 players compete against each other to be termed victorious. The gameplay requires players to equip themselves with weapons and other equipment to be victorious against the enemies.

Weapons are strewn across the entire safe zone in various houses, empty buildings, and loot boxes. The game features more than 30 different types of weapons including AK47, sniper guns, shotguns, pixel guns, miniguns, SMGs, pistols, etc. With auto-shooting enabled, players don't have to worry about hitting the shot button right on time.

However, one thing to keep in mind is that the players have to be cautious of the shrinking zone; as the game progresses the safe zone starts
