

getting smaller to bring competitors closer. If left out of the zone, you can be eliminated without even getting shot. Players can also battle it out in combat vehicles including tanks and battle cars. You can also customise your pixels by purchasing any pixel block skin you like.

Knives Out- No Rules, Just Fight!

Knives Out also known as Wilderness Action is developed and released by NetEase Games. The game follows the general requiem of a Battle Royale game and is, in fact, heavily inspired by Players Unknown Battlegrounds. The gameplay revolves around contenders falling onto a stranded island to survive against the remaining lot. Once the player has landed, you are required to dash straight out to equip yourself with weaponry and equipment that is distributed across the safe zone in empty houses and buildings. You can also loot armaments from other players that you have shot dead. The game features several game modes including the Battle Royale Mode in
