

There are several events which ensure that you get some critical additions to your long list of weapons without much fuss. The gameplay is limited to 3 minutes, and you can choose from the various modes other than the ones mentioned above, like Gem Grab, Defense Mode, Bowling Mode, and others.

You can throw grenades, shoot, launch a whirlwind assault, throw invisible mines, and a hell of a lot. The graphics are simple and will have you engaged for long gaming sessions. Invite your friends today and have a wild clash with them virtually!

Mobile Legends: Bang Bang

An offering from Moonton, Mobile Legends: Bang Bang is a mobile game that offers a traditional MOBA experience. The gameplay is a strict 10 minutes, and the developers boast 10-second matchmaking times.

Being true to its genes of being a classic MOBA, this game offers real-time 5v5 battles against real opponents. There are three lanes to choose from, and the objective is to takedown the enemy base. Pretty standard stuff.

You can choose to game with any of the heroes, and all of them have unique abilities that differentiate them from the rest. They come with three skills, 2 of them are available readily, and the last one is the ultimate ability, which comes online sometime into the game.

The graphics are pretty good as well. There is AI assistance working in the background too, which helps you to reconnect after a network
