

easy and fun to customise. It also features environments and arenas based on popular LEGO themes such as Ninjago, Castle, and Pirate.

Some of the uses of bricks during brawls include building ridiculous and funny items such as snake cars, money guns, pie launchers which act as power ups.

As Brian Lovell, CEO, RED Games Co said, “Because of the deep customization, no two games of LEGO Brawls will ever be the same”. So, you might have already guessed that with LEGO games, the possibilities are endless! d
