

spree. Fast and Furious, Madrush, Electrifying chase sequences from the James Bond movies have become a cult which is to be remembered in the years to come and the game has used all of them as a reference point. The developer of the game has sincerely crafted it keeping in mind the objective to make you feel like watching a movie while playing the game.

The game virtually puts together a rare collection of high-end cars blended in truly celestial and scintillating surroundings against the backdrop of an exotic foreign location to woo the minds of gamers.

The cinematic experience of watching action-packed stunts in the realm of racing in a gamified environment is something that #Drive promises to unfold. 