

source: docs.unrealengine.com

Defined macros have one input and one output mode

Once you fill the values the Macro will update the values automatically inside the pins.

source: docs.unrealengine.com

Fill out the detail panel

Now you must connect data and execution wires for the input and output nodes for building a network between them. You can set different parameters also such a score limit for winning etc.

Once you store the Macro in the Blueprint Macro Libraries, they become accessible to all Level Blueprint and Blueprint Classes across the project.