

3. Click on Languages.
4. Select the language not in use.
5. Click the Remove button.

To delete more than one additional language, repeat the steps mentioned above.

Moving files to an external drive

Using external files with the computer system nowadays has become the latest trend. The best thing about it is it reduces the burden on the system storage which could result in better performance.

Follow the steps to move the files to the external files:

1. Connect the external drive to the device.
2. Open File Explorer .
3. Browse and select the files and folders to be moved.
4. Click the Home tab.
5. Click the Move to button.
6. Select the Choose location option.
7. Select the destination.
8. Click on the Move button.

Repeat the above steps to move more than one files and folders from the system to the external drive.

Save future files to new drive

To automatically install the applications to the new location, follow the steps given below:

1. Open Settings.
2. Click System.
3. Click Storage.
4. Click the Change where new content is saved option under More storage settings.
5. Select the new drive location from the drop-down menus, to save the files automatically for each type of content.
6. Click the Apply button.

As soon as the above steps are completed, the new files and applications will be downloaded in the new location.

Move applications to the new drive

Applications and games can be moved to the external drives without any