

With back-to-back issues focused on “How to guides” you might wonder if we’re sneakily rebranding FastTrack into something a lot more pedantic and simple. Let us take this opportunity to put those fears to rest by saying that we’re going to be focusing on the usual FastTrack topics and we’re still open to your suggestions. As always, you can reach out to us on email at editor@digit.in or you can hit us up on any of our social media handles.
