

then working on schema and views. All these administrative tasks are by default handled by Django framework.

With this, we come to the end of this Chapter on Django. The upcoming chapter of this FastTrack will delve into explaining views and templates in Django. Let us know if this chapter helped you in creating models and learning admin backend tweaks in Django by writing to us. 