

What's new in PowerPoint 2019?

For adding that extra pizzazz to your presentations

Microsoft PowerPoint has, for decades now, been the grandmaster of presentation software. For people of all levels of experience, Microsoft PowerPoint has been the go-to software when it comes to slideshows, explainers, or even simple visual accompaniments. PowerPoint has, over the years, become a mainstay for business purposes, academic purposes and even personal purposes, and is among the most utilised software in the world.
