

download the version of your choice either by paying some amount or for free. Microsoft.com is the web portal from where you can download the application. Visio users can download the following options:

- Visio Online Plan I (SAAS edition) – Users of this version can work online on their favourite browser by paying monthly fees.
- Visio Professional: There is a one-time fee, and the user can get the license of this app.
- Visio Standard: By paying a one-time fee, you can get the license of this version.
- Visio Online Plan II: This is a SAAS edition that can be installed on a web portal or Microsoft.

These versions have their own features and properties. You can use the plug-in if you want to access to Visio through your web browsers, like Explorer or Edge. The diagrams can be drawn by using its components. The standard version of the application is around $280, while the cost of its professional version is around $350.

There are some third-party vendors as well that you can search on Google; they offer the product at much cheaper prices. However, do so at your own risk. Visio Plan I and II are available for Office 365. Users of Visio 2016 can also upgrade their application from 2016 to 2019.

Microsoft Visio has several advantages, and even some users prefer it over the office. Businesses have many advantages of documenting. There are many stages like generating business plans or business analytics reports or other when they have to generate the charts or visual representation. Visio is a Microsoft application software. It has other applications like Windows, PowerPoint, Excel. All of them can be integrated with each other.

Final words

Visio can be used to draw custom shapes. Useful desktop and web applications can be designed through Visio, and it is considered as a reliable application. You can even try to get trained for the application online.

Visio desktop app is used to create smart custom master shapes and templates. The developed apps or templates can even be deployed on the Visio web. The shapes used and created in Visio are customisable, so you can change them as per your requirement. The new features like UML template designing make the app more powerful. d