

ment features instead of a green screen so you can choose the background scene as per your streaming option.

- FOV: 70 degrees

Pros:

- 1080p and 60 FPS.
- Low-light performance is better.
- Video compression feature is available.
- It has dual omnidirectional microphones.

Cons:

- The software causes problems at least once a month.

4. Logitech C930E

Logitech's most advanced HD webcam is the C930E with self video encoding. It produces excellent video quality. It has a 90-degree wide FOV, so you can easily use it for conferences and presentations.

- FOV: 90 degrees

Pros:

- Wide FOV.
- On-board video processing is present.

Logitech C930E Business Webcam

Cons:

- It is priced higher than its immediate older version C920.

5. HP HD 4310

HD 4310 is an ultra-compact model from HP with 3-way video calling, a 1080p screen with 360-degree pan, and 30-degree adjustments. It has auto light adjustment features and is one of the most preferred webcam for live streams.

- Resolution: 1080p
- Frame rate: 30 FPS
- FOV: 360 degrees