

all your live streaming needs. It comes with a hot base mount so that you can easily change the light on your camera and create a soft lighting effect with the umbrellas to enhance your video quality. The dimmer control knob allows you to adjust the intensity of light, which plays a crucial role in both the videos and photos. It has 300 white and 300 warm white LED lights, making it perfect for professionals, and is ideal for streaming and making videos. As it is lightweight and easy to set up, you can take it anywhere you like.

3. Studio-Grade

Studio-grade lights are made specifically, keeping content creation in mind, and have extremely useful features if you are looking to stream online.

If you are curious to learn more, here are a few options you can consider:

1. Simpex LED 1500 bi-colour professional LED video light panel

This professional LED video light panel by Simpex offers barn door functionality for easy broadcast and video shoot. With 1500 SMD LED beads, it offers colour temperature variation from 3300K to 5600K. It has the perfect beam angle, which offers extra brightness while shooting videos, and is a high-quality built. The built-in dual fans can be controlled manually to provide for dissipation of heat to the LED, and it is powered with AC adapters or NPF batteries for wireless operation. The attached barn doors allow you to create a spread of light and a magnetic white diffuser to soften any harsh light.

2. Eloies Simpex pro HD LED

The Simpex studio lighting pro is built for professional streaming and features video lights, which are 40 cm x 40 cm. It offers the complete solution to all your video lighting needs, studio lights, softbox lighting, and LED lights for videography. The Simpex pro plays an essential role in enhancing all your videos and photos and comes with an AC power cord. With its extra bright light features, it is perfect for filmmakers, YouTubers, and professionals. It boasts of collapsible multiple-disc light reflectors with translucent panels to meet your varied shooting needs.

3. Camrolite lamp softbox kit

This kit is easy to carry around and can be set up in minutes to shoot awe-