

and transitions. You can use the categories to create good quality videos for live streaming or broadcasting.

Here are some of its features:

- OBS provides real-time audio and video recording and mixing in high-quality.
- It enables you to use customised transitions.
- It provides you an excellent audio mixer that enables you to use VST plugin support.
- With this software, you can add new sources and replicate the existing source.
- You can adjust your recording and broadcast.
- Its studio mode enables you to preview the video before streaming.

Streamlabs OBS

Streamlabs OBS is a derivative of OBS Studio. It too is an open-source software for live streaming and broadcasting that works with the platform of your choice. It comes with many features and streaming tools, and you can also personalise streaming with free overlays or themes. Here are some of its features:

Streamlabs OBS

- It enables you to broadcast on various social media platforms.
- It helps you customise various live streaming tools.
- It offers a selective recording feature, which means you can select what appears in your live stream.