

the production, or you can enlist a bot that can do the work of 10 interns and costs less than stipend of one. We're kidding of course, you wouldn't pay interns, would you?

And the last thing we look at is every professional streamers best friend, the Stream Deck. It's not a complicated gadget and there are plenty of alternatives in the market. And yet, this one is used by them all. We dive into its features and what makes it so popular.

As always, we're open to suggestions and complaints. Please feel free to write to editor@digit.in or hit us up on any of our social media handles. Happy streaming! 🇮🇳
