

Copyright attribution: <https://blog.discord.com>

Every event you conduct in your community, you strengthen the bond between your members.

part of the event and the community. When you do organise any event, make sure to enjoy it with your members and have fun.

How can you steer people to join your event?

After the announcement of an event, one of the most challenging parts is to steer members to join the event. The best way to do this is to keep everything relevant. The majority of members in your community would have something or the other in common. It could be their ideology, interest, passion, or understanding.

- If you have a large group of gamers, it is better to have a game night event where people could join for a good session.
- Do your majority members love music? You can organize an event where everybody just chills and enjoys the music they love.
- Do you think most people love to have a debate? It is better to cater to their interest and build on it. That's the best possible way to enjoy the event and lure more members for it.

Conclusion

In just about 3 years, Discord has become one of the most used and enjoyed